

ACP Presents: Entering the next era of American Energy with NextEra Energy

On July 25th, ACP and NextEra connected on a production panel to highlight the company's culture and hiring strategies. U.S. Army Veteran Scott Hamilton discussed their plan for Real Zero and how this leading clean energy company plans to drive the decarbonization of America. The discussion honed in on company benefits, transition tips, career exploration, and how Veterans can grow within the company. Here are the resources shared during the webinar.
